Group Urges Negro, White Church Visits

DES MOINES (UPI) — The Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference has launched a program to bring together Negro and white church members.
 Cecil Reed, chairman of the conference, said Friday letters have been mailed to all Des Moines churches asking the congregations to cooperate with the conference in organizing visits between churches.
 "We hope that Negro and white congregations, Sunday school classes and individual church members will get together to visit each other and talk about their common problems," Reed said.
 "We believe that communications is the way to friendship between the races and a major step toward a solution to the racial and economic problems of our country."
 The Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference was formed last month. Reed said its program has been endorsed by the Des Moines council of churches, the Roman Catholic diocese of Des Moines, and the Des Moines rabbinate.

Andriess Indicted For Slaying Iowan

CHICAGO (AP) — Frederick Andriess, 25, of Jacksonville, Fla., was indicted here Friday on a murder charge by a grand jury in connection with the fatal shooting of Carol Sue Edelman, 21, of Sioux City, Iowa.
 Miss Edelman's body was found in a Chicago motel room on April 4. She had been shot in the chest.
 Andriess was arrested after a .38 caliber revolver was found in a trash can behind the motel and was traced to him. Police said the revolver was the murder weapon.
 Miss Edelman was in Chicago seeking a job as an airline stewardess.

Edgewood Paper Tornado Casualty

EDGEWOOD — It took a has never missed an issue tornado to do it, but for last, although on occasion the publication date has been advanced or delayed a week due to special circumstances.
 The Commercial club-sponsored bi-weekly publication has been in print for the last 15 years. It repercussions in this town 30 miles to the east.

The editorial board is drawn from the Commercial club membership. However, the paper is a self-supporting project. The paper is printed at an Oelwein printing shop, which was demolished by the storm. However, the printer hopes to be able to get out the next issue, which is scheduled for June 5.

Three members of the editorial board, Arthur Welterlen, Richard Chapman and O. H. Berens, have served since the first issue July 1, 1953. Later other Commercial club members served one-year terms on the board and for the last several years Carroll Appleton has served as the permanent fourth member of the committee. Mrs. Earl Gleason served as editor of the publication for the first 14 years of its history. Gladys Holthaus is the present editor.

Boys State
 CALMAR — Loren Lensing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordian Lensing, has been named to attend Boys State at Camp Dodge next month. He will be sponsored by the Legion.
