An inmate was injured in a one vehicle accident while being transported by police to the McLennan County jail on Monday, November 4th. The accident occurred at mile marker 326 on I-35 near the Moonlight Drive exit. A Moody police officer was driving the inmate to the jail after arresting him on a warrant when the police car hydroplaned in the rain. The inmate was taken to the hospital and treated for minor injuries.

Localized thunderstorms occurred across central Texas during the late afternoon and evening of November 4th. Most of the storms produced very little impacts, but there were a few accidents that resulted from heavy rain in Waco.
