THE RISK IS REAL.

THE FIRST STEP IN PROTECTING YOUR HOME AND FAMILY IS PURCHASING FLOOD INSURANCE.

UNDERSTAND YOUR FLOOD RISK AND KNOW WHERE TO ACCESS FLOOD INFORMATION IN REAL TIME TO ASSESS AND RESPOND TO FLOOD THREATS.
In your area.

Information, call 1-888-435-6637 to Find an

To learn more about staying safe before and during a flood, visit Floodsmart.gov. For more home and aesthetically designed themselves.

Watch for animals who lose their homes

cases of death in floods.

Keep away from downed power lines and any other in their cases when anywhere else during a flood.

Keep a minimum 3-day supply of non-perishable food and more a car can be an SWV. More people drown

Do not drive through a clothes or mud when water can lift

Do not knock you down.

husband of mother's water.

Do not walk through.

instructiions.

When a flood warning is issued. heed official

you can do to stay safe.

Hopefully, you never have to experience a flood

BE SAFE DURING A FLOOD

With www.floodsmart.gov for more info.

even if you never experience a flood, you'll be glad to Include a battery-powered radio in your emergency kit

and bottled water on hand.

Keep a minimum 3-day supply of non-perishable food

Light, prepared sandwiches and waterproof matches.

Put aside on an emergency kit equipped with a large had.

be reached after a flood.

With emergency contact information, so that you can Provide your insurance agent, employer, and family

HAVE AN EMERGENCY PLAN

When the National Weather Service issues a flood

Review your policy and ask questions to make sure you and items essential to the building's structure.

Food insurance coverage is limited to certain items

compares your lists, the better.

don't have to return them and let's our household

clothing, books, small kitchen appliances, etc. You

Your home food of original cost.

Save and store receipts for any expensive household

other documents.

Store copies with equipment.

mental insurance's documents.

Valuable possessions (jewelry,.

Take photos of your most outside the home. like a bank, safe deposit.

in your home and store originals in a secure place

Keep copies of your most important documents (mortgage, do to prepare.

Important things you can be ready. Here are some

be ready. Here are some

you should always be near the water whether it happens fast. So whether

Floods can happen anytime

BE PREPARED BEFORE A FLOOD