Press Release: 2015 WINTER WEATHER INFORMATION

From: Chad Omitt
Warning Coordination Meteorologist
National Weather Service Topeka, KS

Winter Weather Awareness Day for Northeast Kansas will be Tuesday December 1, 2015. The National Weather Service, in conjunction with Kansas Emergency Management, select a day each fall to remind Kansans of the potential hazards associated with winter weather. Many people are often caught unprepared for the onset of snow, ice, and cold weather of winter. Knowledge and preparation are essential to minimizing these hazards.

Additional winter weather preparedness and safety information will be posted to the website for the National Weather Service in Topeka. This website is a comprehensive resource for winter weather information. Please use the information contained here and on the website for newspaper articles, interviews and presentations related to winter weather safety.
