Early Fireworks

This Fourth of July is still more than a month away but there's plenty to be done early in town. A signal event will be Saturday at 7:00 p.m. during the Friday and Saturday at the Democratic state presidential convention.

Supporters of Vice-president Hubert Humphrey, Senator Bobby Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy will be fashioning cars in their efforts to attract votes to their own candidates.

Thirty of the 32 delegates will cast their votes at 8:00 o'clock next morning; the other 11 at the convention Saturday afternoon. This is the first convention for the national Democratic party since 19th century days when they met in a small room in the capital and it is open to the public.

On Monday they will take their stand at the U.S. Republican state party convention, which was held at the KIIT from Thursday. That was the last of the three times this location was used for the Republican convention of former Governor Harold Hughes.
