needed items.

• those useful but no longer ing pronouncements through not infallibility "but the right to leaders or conventions, claims issues." "But the right to itself to irrelevancy and of one of the most auspicious of pressing modern problems, such participation causes would! "Even more important is the contribute a point of view, in-facilities available for discussion sensitive and informed voice.

an open and fair forum for the duty to speak up and to provide

Confident in the justice of this side or outside of its own

Lone Tree — Alan Swanson;

I Dennis Kiesey; J Petty, Stephen West; Keota —

i Thomas Dostal, Sally Horn, Roy

! Winthrop — Gregory Franck.

i Marion — Douglas Minney;

— Steven Klaus; Fairfax —

j romantic, Labour, 19. of Oskaloosa us

j toted $801 million, about 13 A passenger on the cycle,

" percent over the 602,149, owa

j tand E Free

j dy, and 2,456 respectively over the counties reported gains of 2 M9

y

j

d Friday night when his truck on high

, Des Moines showed increases of report a year earlier. Taxable' motorcycle was in collision with and E Free

j

j

morning at a University hospitals.

141.

University hospitals.

s Burford Earthfield

Charles Deastan

Rock Island

Stony Point, Stephens West, Kansas

Lane Tree — Alan Swanson; unlimited in such offices which people who declare political in matters of public policy can on the issues and perhaps even reconcile their difficulties." Religious liberty includes the church can arrange meetings in an effective contribution to "the development of democratic society and a 'democratic tradition,'" he said.

Suspension of the permit would leave the community

"without a voice." Furthermore,

"Without participation, the people cannot participate in privacy."

Reagan to the group. Westerfield is publisher of the Fayette-

County Union.

Olaro the third biennial convention in Kansas City in 1966, is called

"Christian Freedom and Religious Liberty." He has been active in civil liberties recently.

The Christian community has the responsibility to protect both governmental authority and the right of citizens against the pressure, said Forell.

Christians are obliged "to compromise and support all those authorities which in fact secure the liberty and make it possible for everyone to exercise their rights of free speech and association." It is not possible to compromise on the "sandstone of liberty," he said. "It doesn't matter how small the issue, we shall not yield.

"We are not going to accept changes in the form of the church."

Forell said the church, making promises. It should rememberalbeit "that the right to Justice is not in itself an infallible pronouncement.

Church Has Right, Duty

To Speak Up, Forell Says

Gr возделал на полях своих, а потом включил их в свой земельный участок.

Charlestone, Montana, USA - 1168

This was a typical scene in Cedar Rapids Sunday as the city, along with many others, mourned the loss of its recently deceased mayor, George Forell.

Forell, a long-time member of the local Democratic Party, was remembered for his dedication to public service and his commitment to improving the lives of his fellow citizens.

His passing was mourned by many, including his colleagues in the city council, who said he will be deeply missed.

Forell was a beloved figure in the community, known for his kind nature and his willingness to listen to the concerns of others.

His death came as a shock to many, and his passing has left a hole in the heart of the city.

But Forell's legacy will live on, as he leaves behind a legacy of service and dedication to the people of Cedar Rapids.