Iowa City OKs New Voter Registration Policy

Statement of Intent Is Sufficient for Students

IOWA CITY — Following a one-hour discussion on the importance of preventing the destruction of the registration system, the council has adopted a resolution that states a statement of intent is sufficient to qualify anyone to vote. The resolution was introduced by Councilman Ron Cook, who said it would simplify the process of registering voters.

The resolution states that the council is aware of the importance of maintaining the integrity of the registration system and that a statement of intent is sufficient to qualify anyone to vote. The council also agreed that the statement of intent should be signed by the individual who wishes to vote.

The resolution was adopted by a 7-0 vote, with Councilman Bill Johnson absent. Johnson was not present for the meeting and could not be reached for comment.
