

Lasser Named to Hoover Foundation Post

WEST BRANCH - Dr. Franz G. Lassner was named to the Hoover Presidential Library in West Branch, a position he will assume in the fall 1965.

Dr. Lassner is presently the Herbert Hoover Birthplace Foundation director of research in Pendleton, Illinois.

His advance degree from Georgetown university is in history, and he has earned advanced degrees in history and public administration from the State University of Iowa and Cambridge, England.

"It has always been my desire to remain in my academic world, but the opportunity to serve as the librarian of a presidential library is one of the great academic achievements a young scholar can become a part of," Dr. Lassner said.

The library, which was founded in 1922, is the official repository of the papers of Herbert Hoover, 31st president of the United States, and his wife, Lou Henry Hoover.

The Hoover Library is a part of the National Park Service, but it is a Federal regional library, and the research program conducted in the library is of a national scope.

Rural Area Crisis Cited By Humphrey

KANSAS CITY (AP) - The farming problem of the Kansas City area is pressing so severe that the Columbia University Committee on Rural Conditions declared Friday night.

"There is a growing realization that people are going to have to take some action," said Dr. Humphrey. "People are going to have to take some action to deal with the problem of rural conditions." The committee, which was organized by the American Society of Agriculture, was established in 1912 by the American Society of Agriculture to study rural conditions.

The committee's report, which was released Friday, said that the Kansas City area is one of the most devastated in the nation.

The report said that the area is suffering from a lack of adequate drainage, soil erosion, and a lack of economic development.

The committee also said that the area needs more education and training to help people understand the problems they are facing.

Farm Money Approved by Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The house appropriations committee, Friday approved a bill carrying $2,850,000 to the nation's farm programs for the fiscal year beginning July 1, the amount was slightly higher than the amount appropriated for the 1965 fiscal year.

The bill also included $3,500,000 for investigations and studies authorized by the congress earlier in the year.

Rice and coffee inspection programs were omitted from the amount appropriated by the congress earlier in the year.

The committee, which was made up of 18 members, passed the bill 52-23.
