Montuak Dedication Thursday

Montuak, home of William Larraban, governor of Iowa from 1856 to 1860, will be dedicated as a historic site Thursday at 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.

OPEN HOUSE
to Be Held at First Presbyterian Church

The Red Cross will release two program items:

1. The Red Cross has increased its home placement program from awarding the families of veterans a $5.000 by Theiscience. He was appointed Ford McFarlan, president; Paul Donald Fostvedt, associate vice-president; Bob Stanard, vice-president; Karen Fields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Epperly, state director. Internal director; Wayne Eddins, national director; Newell Sutton, state director.

2. A Tornado Tales feature of May 31 shows in Des Moines and West Des Moines.

Montuak, home of William Larraban, governor of Iowa from 1856 to 1860, will be dedicated as a historic site Thursday at 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.

Montuak Dedication Thursday

Montuak, home of William Larraban, governor of Iowa from 1856 to 1860, will be dedicated as a historic site Thursday at 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.

Open House Today For Nellie McLaren

CHERRY — Nellie McLaren, Victorian, will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in front of 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.

Montuak Dedication Thursday

Montuak, home of William Larraban, governor of Iowa from 1856 to 1860, will be dedicated as a historic site Thursday at 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.

Summer Posts For Forestry Students Set

AMES — Students will take summer jobs paying a total of $150 for the state and national parks and forests and railroads. The program is designed to help provide job opportunities for the summer months and to train students in the areas of natural resource management and wildlife administration.

The Secret Service has identified the body of a man who was found dead near a road in eastern Iowa as that of 14-year-old Harry A. Peffer, a student at the University of Iowa. The body was discovered by a state trooper who was patrolling the area.

Montuak Dedication Thursday

Montuak, home of William Larraban, governor of Iowa from 1856 to 1860, will be dedicated as a historic site Thursday at 2 p.m. A program planned for the dedication, Harry A. Peffer will give the welcome and L.H. Moerl will give the acknowledgment by the mayor. Main speaker will be E.L. Beardsley (White). Presentation of the home to the public as a historical home will be by William Larraban. Mrs. Larraban and Alice Meek will be the guides. The Valley high school band will perform. The house will be operated by Historical Governor Larraban Home, Inc., of Centerville.