S. Vietnam Political Crisis
Threatening U.S. Position

PARIS (AP) — A government officer in Saigon said that American and South Vietnamese soldiers and marines were in a "state of alert" near the Cambodian border. The officer said he had been in contact with President Nguyen Van Thieu's government, which is pressing for total cessation of hostilities invading survivors' minds.

Two motorcyclists were killed here in a head-on collision. One of the victims was a man who worked at the University of Iowa's Engineering School.

A university official said that both men were in serious condition at Iowa City Hospital.

The two were riding in a head-on collision when they were struck by a car that was reportedly driving at high speed.
