Dear Abby

Neighbor Yoo-Hoos, Peek-a-Boos, Mister

DEAR ABBY: What do you do about people who just walk into your house because the door isn't locked? Many times I will tell my grocer to set my groceries inside my door instead of on the back porch, and I leave the door unlocked for him.

as fascinating as he may think. DEAR ABBY: This may sound like a silly problem to you but it is serious to me. My bones crack. Honestly, when I'm sitting in one place for a while and then start walking, my knee cracks. It doesn't hurt, but it is very embarrassing.

When I eat, sometimes my jaws snaps. If you are laughing at me I can't blame you, Abby but I sure wish you would tell me if there is anything I can do about my problem.

"CRACKY" DEAR CRACKY: Grin and bear it. The "problem" is grossly exaggerated only because it's your own. How much attention would you give to the "cracking" of someone else's knee? Or the snapping of his jaw? Not much, I'll bet.

DEAR ABBY: I have pre-school children and a large home to care for, but I schedule my time so that everything gets done. When the children nap, I read, write letters, and relax alone, which I enjoy.

At that precise time, invariably a certain neighbor barges in on me with her children. She helps herself to refreshments, then settles down for an endless outpouring of gossip, unasked-for advice and a monologue of opinions on various subjects. She is a terrible bore.

I would pretend not to be home, but she can see my car in the garage. At first, I found her entertaining, but now she comes so often, I've taken a dislike to her. Please tell me what to do, but don't use my name or location. She has a vicious tongue and would make a better friend than an enemy.

TRAPPED

DEAR TRAPPED: People who open their doors to bores and tolerate their company day after day have only themselves to blame. By your failure to discourage her, you've encouraged her. If you had to decide between having this rude, vicious, gossipy pest for a friend or an enemy, I think you made an unwise choice.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. FOR ABBY'S BOOKLET, "HOW TO HAVE A LOVELY WEDDING, SEND $1.00 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069.
