Seven died in a fire at a rooming house in Easton, Pa., and nine others were injured, according to the fire department. The fire started in the second floor bedroom of the building and spread quickly to the other floors. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

In other news, the Supreme Court has reversed a federal labor board decision in favor of the United Mine Workers. The court ruled that the miners had not proven their case and ordered the miners back to work.

The Weather

The weather continued to be unseasonably warm and dry, with temperatures reaching into the 80s and low 90s. The National Weather Service has advised people to stay hydrated and take precautions against heat exhaustion.

A Roaring Gale Sweeps City

A powerful storm has hit the city, bringing high winds and heavy rain. The National Weather Service has issued a warning for areas near the coast, with the potential for flooding and power outages.

Oshkoshian Storm Victim

A young man was killed in a storm that hit the area last night. The victim was identified as William J. Peterson, 23, of Oshkosh. Peterson was killed when a tree fell on his car while he was driving home from work.

The Storm

The storm started late last night and lasted into the early morning hours. It brought heavy rain, strong winds, and lightning. The National Weather Service has warned that the storm may cause power outages and flooding.

Local News

In other local news, the city council met last night to discuss the proposed budget for the coming year. The council voted to approve the budget, with some amendments.

Sports

The local high school basketball team won their regional championship last night. The team will now advance to the state tournament, where they hope to bring home a state title.

Business

A local businessman has opened a new store in downtown Oshkosh. The store, which sells clothing and accessories, has already become a popular destination for shoppers.

Events

The city will hold a festival next weekend to celebrate its history. The festival will feature live music, food, and activities for all ages.

Local News

In other local news, the city council met last night to discuss the proposed budget for the coming year. The council voted to approve the budget, with some amendments.

Sports

The local high school basketball team won their regional championship last night. The team will now advance to the state tournament, where they hope to bring home a state title.

Business

A local businessman has opened a new store in downtown Oshkosh. The store, which sells clothing and accessories, has already become a popular destination for shoppers.

Events

The city will hold a festival next weekend to celebrate its history. The festival will feature live music, food, and activities for all ages.