

The National Weather Service is Hiring!

We are now hiring early-career meteorologists at most offices across the country! Through an improved, streamlined hiring process, eligible candidates will be entered into pools to be continually considered for vacancies.

Interested? Here's what you need to know:

➔ This large hiring push is split between offices in the following three vacancy announcements on USAJobs:

- Possible recruitment incentives:
<https://www.usajobs.gov/job/867259300>
- Eastern: <https://www.usajobs.gov/job/867260400>
- Western: <https://www.usajobs.gov/job/867260700>

- ✓ You can apply to each vacancy group
- ✓ You can select multiple locations for each announcement

📝 Applicants will be evaluated using a USA Hires assessment that could take 1-3 hours to complete, so plan accordingly!

🕒 Closes September 30, 2026 - but apply early to increase your chances!
