County Impacts Associated with Isaias 2026

Narratives listed in alphabetical order by Georgia county.

Updates:

- 10/16/2026 - Initial issuance.

County Name Heard	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0 direct 0 indirect	Evacuations: None
Heard county emergency management reported about 16 trees down across the county as of 6:00 AM on October 10, 2026. Roughly 850 residents were without power as of 7:00 AM on October 10 in Heard county. A weather-related motor vehicle accident was reported in which a driver struck a fallen tree, causing the vehicle to overturn. The driver was initially trapped but sustained no injuries.

County Name Muscogee	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0 direct 0 indirect	Evacuations: None
Broadcast media reported that there were over 5000 power residences without power in the Columbus metropolitan area in the morning of October 10, 2026. The Muscogee County emergency manager reported that about 25 trees were downed around the county. A tree was downed on a home near the intersection of 51 St and Rosemont Dr.

County Name Pike	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0 direct 0 indirect	Evacuations: None
Reports from emergency managers and social media indicated that about 12 trees down in Pike County. Trees were reported down near the intersection of Kings Rd and Gibson Rd, on Concord St near the intersection with Green St, on McKinley Rd near US Hwy 19, along Woodard Rd near US Hwy 19, and on Pedenville Rd. Power lines were also downed on McKinley Rd and on Concord Rd.

County Name Stewart	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0 direct 0 indirect	Evacuations: None
Over 500 residences were without power across Stewart County due to trees and power lines down across the county.

County Name Troup	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0 direct 0 indirect	Evacuations: None
Troup county emergency management reported over 25 trees down across or near roadways across the county as of 5:00 AM on October 10, 2026.			