

Routine Weather Briefing

July 22, 2024
9:05 AM

Outlook Period: Friday 07/22/24 - Sunday 07/26/24

OVERVIEW:

Occasional showers and thunderstorms, some with heavy rain, will continue through the remainder of the week as southerly winds bring tropical moisture northward.

HAZARDS & IMPACTS

Land:

- Isolated strong to severe thunderstorms are possible Monday, primarily for Southeast North Carolina. Localized flooding is possible.
- Due to the full moon this past Sunday, minor coastal flooding with late evening high tides will be possible for the Lower Cape Fear River in the vicinity of Downtown Wilmington into midweek. For more info click here

Beach/Surf:

- Moderate Risk of rip currents may continue through much of the week. Click here for more details.
