Floyd flings floodgates open

Heavy flooding clogs roadways

By WILMA K. DAVIS

Floyd's fury eased, but its punch was powerful

Worst flooding within memory, Gov. Hunt says

Waves

A rating of 400 waves with 100 and 150-knot winds is expected. The waves are expected to crest at about 10 feet. The high winds and rough conditions are expected to continue through today and tonight.