

Weather Impact Overview

Southeast Georgia & Northeast Florida

Significant Coastal Hazards Through Tuesday

- Widespread Minor with isolated Moderate Coastal Flooding and Beach Erosion along the Atlantic Coast during times of High Tide
- Minor Flooding During Times of High Tide within the St. Johns River Basin
- Moderate to High Risk of Rip Currents

Minor to Moderate Tidal Flooding Through Tuesday

WHAT

Predicted Water Level Rise above normally dry ground:

Atlantic Coastline: 2 – 2.5 feet

St. Johns River and Intercoastal: 1.5 – 2.0 feet

PREPADENESS ACTIONS

- Secure/remove vulnerable items before flooding begins
- NEVER drive through flowing flood waters!

Monitor Water Levels & Learn Site Specific Impacts:

<https://water.weather.gov/ahps2/index.php?wfo=jax>

