| Water was reported over Hwy. 123 west of | f Western Grove. | | | | | | |
| A big gullywasher came on the 28th as the system in the Plains neared. Rain came down in buckets over the northern half of the state, with four to more than five inch amounts at several locations. This included Des Arc (Prairie County) and Harrison (Boone County). Three to four inch totals occurred at Booneville (Logan County), Batesville (Independence County), Gilbert (Searcy County), Jonesboro (Craighead County), Lead Hill (Boone County), Marshall (Searcy County), Mena (Polk County), Mountain Home (Baxter County), Newport (Jackson County). In and around Little Rock (Pulaski County), there was spotty flash flooding. At Sherwood (Pulaski County), an inch and a half of rain dumped in twenty minutes. The Little Rock Air Force Base (Pulaski County) got 1.66 inches in an hour. In a four day period ending at 600 am CST on the 30th, precipitation in parts of the north and west exceeded six inches. It was a complete reversal of fortune from the dryness experienced up until the deluge. For the month, rain was just under five inches above average at Harrison (Boone County). | | | | | | | |
