

National Weather Service Student Volunteer Program

CALL FOR STUDENT VOLUNTEER APPLICATIONS

Weather Forecast Office in State College, PA

-and/or-

Mid-Atlantic River Forecast Center in State College, PA

Spring 2025

Find Application Information at:
weather.gov/ctp/studentvolunteers or
weather.gov/marfc/students

Interested in?

Hydrology and
Civil Engineering

Computer
Science

Atmospheric
Science

Social Media/Social Science

GIS

Requirements

- Interested in a career at the National Weather Service
- Enrolled in an accredited college or university
- US citizen

Spring 2025 Applications Due:

November 1, 2024 at 11:59 PM

Please direct additional questions to:
michael.jurewicz@noaa.gov for State College WFO or
robert.shedd@noaa.gov for Mid-Atlantic RFC

NWS in State College Volunteer Application Process

Prospective students should:

- Fill out the Student Volunteer Application
  - Link to Google Form on www.weather.gov/marfc/students or www.weather.gov/ctp/studentvolunteers
  - You can choose either or both offices on page 4.
- Please upload materials below via the Google Form
  - resume,
  - college transcript, and
  - cover letter describing motivation and interests.
- Well-qualified applicants will be interviewed before selection
- We generally limit selections to 1 to 3 students per academic semester
- If you volunteer for at least 135 hours of work (8-10 hours/week), you may qualify for 3 credits for your work. Typically, this requires a paper and/or presentation to be completed at the end of the study period. Talk to your advisor for more details.
- Additional questions can be directed to:
robert.shedd@noaa.gov for Mid-Atlantic RFC or
michael.jurewicz@noaa.gov for State College WFO

Spring 2025 Applications Due:

November 1, 2024 at 11:59 PM