Subject: National Tropical Cyclone Watch Warning Product (TCV) Collaboration Testing May 20-24, 2024 (backup Week: June 3-7)

The NWS National Hurricane Center (NHC), Ocean Prediction Center (OPC), and Weather Forecast Offices (WFOs) in the NWS Eastern Region, Southern Region, and Western Region will perform internal testing of the National Tropical Cyclone Watch/Warning (TCV) product collaboration process daily from Monday, May 20, 2024, through Friday, May 24, 2024. Monday, June 3, through Friday, June 7, is the designated backup week.

Internal testing will begin at approximately 1600 Coordinated Universal Time (UTC) and terminate at 1900 UTC daily during the scheduled test days.

Internal TCV test products are not intended to be released externally through NWS dissemination and communication systems. The text products affected by collaboration testing are the National Tropical Cyclone Watch/Warning (TCV) products issued under the following Advanced Weather Interactive Processing System (AWIPS) Product Identifiers (PILs) and World Meteorological Organization (WMO) Identifiers (IDs):

In addition, the following National Digital Forecast Database (NDFD) elements will be created for this test:

- Tropical cyclone wind probabilities (incremental and cumulative) for 34 kt, 50 kt, and 64 kt,

- Hazard grid (including tropical storm, hurricane, and storm surge hazards).

The NWS will continue periodic internal tropical software testing during the remainder of 2024. The national TCV product will contain a summary of collaborated wind and/or storm surge watches and warnings, depicted by NWS-defined geographic zones.
