Subject: Addition of NWS Common Alerting Protocol version 1.2 messages to NOAA Weather Wire Service Open Interface (NWWS-OI): Effective on or around September 3, 2024

On or around September 3, 2024, the NOAA Weather Wire Service, Open Interface (NWWS-OI) was updated to start disseminating Common Alerting Protocol (CAP) version 1.2 messages. This change will result, on average, in an additional 1200 messages per day being provided on the feed. During active weather situations the number of CAP messages could reach 2,000 per day. For more information on CAP, the v1.2 format and additional NWS CAP dissemination methods, please visit
