Subject: Early Release of May 2012 ENSO Diagnostics Discussion: Effective
May 3, 2012

Effective May 3, 2012, the May 2012 edition of the monthly El Niño/Southern Oscillation (ENSO) diagnostics discussion will be released one week earlier than previously scheduled.

The product will be released one week early in May 2012 due to the ongoing rapid transition from La Niña to neutral conditions. This is a one-time change and will only affect the release date for the May 2012 discussion.
