Subject: Transition of Two Space Weather Prediction Center
(SWPC) Products from Experimental to Operational Status
Effective April 22, 2013

The NWS/SWPC period for solicitation of comments on the experimental 3-Day Forecast and the Forecast Discussion ended on February 14, 2013. These two products are now scheduled for transition to operational status on Monday, April 22, 2013. They are available via SWPC Product Subscription Service (PSS) at

<https://pss.swpc.noaa.gov/Login>

or online at:

http://www.swpc.noaa.gov/ftplib/latest/three_day_forecast.txt

and

http://www.swpc.noaa.gov/ftplib/latest/forecast_discussion.txt

These new products supplement the existing product suite. No current products are being discontinued.
