Subject: Discontinuation of the MRX Tennessee Basin Lake Stages and Forecasts: Effective April 6, 2018

Effective Friday, April 6, 2018, the NWS Morristown, TN, Weather Forecast Office (WFO MRX) will discontinue issuance of the Tennessee Basin Lake Stages and Forecasts (RVR) product.

The information contained in the MRX RVR is easily obtained through other NWS products, social media, and NWS websites such as http://www.weather.gov/mrx/.

Current and past lake observations are available in the RR7 product, and the forecast levels and stages are available in the RVA and RR9 products.

Graphical plots of the data are on the NWS Advanced Hydrologic Prediction Service (AHPS) webpage at:

https://water.weather.gov/ahps/

Observation and forecast data also are on the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) webpage at:

https://www.tva.gov/Environment/Lake-Levels
