VI.7-STATUS   PROGRAM REORDER COMMAND STATUS

Purpose

Command STATUS specifies which data base status reports are to be printed.

Input Data

   Card   Field Format   Contents

    1   1   '@STATUS'

           2   One of the following options: 1/
                              'BEFORE' = print status reports only before reordering
                              'AFTER   = print status reports only after reordering
                              'BOTH'   = print status reports both before and after reordering
                              'NONE'   = do not print any status
                                         reports

    3   A   Option to set status report level: 2/
                       LEVEL(level)

Notes:

1/ If field 2 is omitted 'BOTH' is assumed.

2/ If field 3 is omitted LEVEL(0) is assumed. See Section
   VI.3.3B-STATUS for a description of the level options.