IX.6.3-SYSTEM-EFDATE   COMMON BLOCK EFDATE

Purpose

Common Block EFDATE contains creation date for time series to be read from the ESP permanent time series files.

Listing

COMMON /EFDATE/ IFDATE(5)

Description of Variables

```
                         Word
   Variable  Type  Dimension  Position  Description

   IFDATE    I*4      5          1       Date of time series to be read was written to the ESP
                                         permanent time series files:
                                             IFDATE(1) =  month
                                             IFDATE(2) =  day
                                             IFDATE(3) =  4-digit year
                                             IFDATE(4) =  hour and minute
                                                          (military time)
                                             IFDATE(5) =  seconds and milliseconds
```