

MARCH: Above Normal Temperatures With Numerous Strong Wind Events

March Highlights

- Above normal temperatures across the area: DCA and IAD +2.5°F; BWI +1.3°F
- Above normal readings 12 of past 13 months at BWI and IAD; 11 of 13 at DCA
- The DCA recorded 4 days with highs at or above 70°F; BWI and IAD, 2 days
- IAD recorded 9 days with highs at or above 60°F; BWI, 8 such days, IAD, 6 such days
- DCA observed only 2 days with minimum readings at or below 32°F
- ₹ Wind gust of 74 mph at DCA on 5th is strongest wind speed ever recorded in March
- The county of the county of the county and about 2" in portions of Montgomery County of the county o
- Strong winds on 8th and 20th cause some property damage; thousands lose power across area
- No measurable snowfall was observed in the region