Freeze Watch Issued

Freeze Watch issued for portions of Central NC Early Friday Morning.

In Effect: Friday 2 AM -> 10 AM

Temperature will drop into the upper 20s to lower 30s Friday morning. These temperatures will threaten unprotected plants and vegetation.

Timing: 2 AM – 10 AM Friday

Locations: Portions of central NC, mainly west of US-1

A Freeze Watch means sub-freezing temperatures are possible. Damage to crops and other unprotected green vegetation is possible.

For more information on the cold weather hazard threats, stay tuned to our social media accounts, NOAA Weather Radio, and our website: www.weather.gov/raleigh